Queensland Public Holidays

If you are in Queensland, you are never in short of places to explore. Tourism is Queensland's prominent industry. Millions of national and international visitors are visiting Queensland. The state is rich with lush green rainforests, sunny coastal beaches, dry inlands, and highlands. Find the largest tourist attractions to explore during QLD public holidays:

- Brisbane, Port Douglas, Daintree Rainforest, Gold Coast, the Great Barrier Reef, Fraser Island.
- Townsville, North Stradbroke Island, Magnetic Island, Hervey Bay, and Fraser Island
- Sunshine Coast, Daydream Island, Hamilton Island, and Whitsundays.

Cairns is known as the Gateway to the Barrier Reef. The five famous amusement parks are considered best for outings. The famous places for outdoors are Lone Pine Koala sanctuary, Roma street parkland, and Queensland Gallery of Modern Art. Botanic gardens and Gold Coast are other major tourist attractions.
